

RELEASE TO BE USED FOR OPEN SCHOOLING AT CATALPA CORNER (TO BE COMPLETED FOR EVERY RIDER EVERY TIME OUT BEFORE MOUNTING)

School in groups or in associations with a group. No one should school alone and it is advisable that each group have someone on the ground with a working cell phone to aid in handling emergencies. Dial '911' and be prepared to give directions to Catalpa Corner – 5365 Elmira Rd, Iowa City, IA. Check each obstacle before you school it to make sure each is clear of hazards such as fallen branches. Don't jump any obstacles that are closed or under construction. Many obstacles can be jumped in both directions so make sure that no one is coming from the other direction. Take special care when schooling multiple obstacles. Unless conditions warrant, do not school at speed over multiple obstacles. It is strongly encouraged that riders school only (1) level above showing, i.e., NO BN/N rider should school Preliminary obstacles. Report falls to office.

PLEASE NOTE: All rider under the age of 21 MUST school under the supervision of a qualified professional adult instructor. Riders schooling with a USEA ICP Certified Instructors Level 1 or above may take $5 discount on the schooling fee. Instructors MUST sign and provide their liability insurance information on this form. NOTE: Anyone mounted must wear an approved SEI/ASTM helmet with fastened harness and boots with heels even if not jumping. When schooling cross-country protective vests are required.
